Task description

In this second traineeship period, Andrei continued to provide excellent support to the activities of the ACC team in many ways. This time, his main efforts went into the drafting, preparation and production of the IAS History Book that was published in December 2020. Andrei provided assistance across the board as one of the authors of the book. He contributed in the conduct of interviews and the drafting of key chapters. His key contribution however was in the effective and efficient use of his advanced IT and social media skills.

Adviser's appreciation

Andrei's expertise and detailed work in preparing the book's graphics and coordinating the photo-copies to ensure a clean and clear print was very impressive.

Without any reservation, we can say that Andrei is a hardworking, creative and very constructive team member. His drive and expertise were key in ensuring the delivery of a significant book production on time and to a high standard.
