Dear Sir/Madam,

I have known Andrei Cursaru since October 2015 in my capacity as Associate Lecturer in Politics at Lancaster University.

Andrei is an exemplary student. He is well-read, motivated and engages well with the subject. In class discussions he demonstrates an ability to think critically in both conceptual and practical manners. In group tasks he drives his colleagues towards their objective with enthusiasm and well-judged leadership. Andrei is well liked by his colleagues. He scores well in individual work including the challenging assessments of which the course is composed.

I am proud to recommending that Andrei be part of your organisation.

Yours sincerely,

Mr Oliver Fitton
Associate Lecturer
PPR Department, Lancaster University
