

To Whom It May Concern,

22 October 2019

This is a letter of recommendation for Andrei Cursaru. My name is Professor Robert Geyer from the Department of Politics, Philosophy and Religion at Lancaster University. Andrei Cursaru was my student while he was at Lancaster University. In particular, I was his supervisor on his 3rd year dissertation (a large work - 10,000 words- required for all 3rd year students). I met with him throughout the year. Andrei was a very hard working and amiable student who was very easy to work with. He was easy to supervise, took direction well and was very determined to do well. He was well organised, structured his arguments well and produced an excellent dissertation. He was interested in intellectual arguments, but was also focused on practical policy questions. He was one of my top students and easily went on to study for a Master degree. I give him my strongest recommendation and hope you give your full consideration to his application.

Sincerely, Professor Robert Geyer
