To Whom It May Concern:

It is with great privilege that I write you in recommendation of Mr. Andrei Cursaru. Having worked in a professional environment with Andrei I recommend him wholeheartedly for your consideration. I do so without any reservation. In all that he endeavored, Andrei demonstrated a high level of professionalism and intellectual curiosity, as well as a passion for international development that is an invaluable requisite for a successful professional and academic career.

Andrei made a valuable contribution to the UNV programme as an Online Volunteer. During his tenure Andrei was able to take on a myriad of tasks including assisting with preparatory research on the Junior Professional Officer Programme (JPO) Service Centre, calculating proforma costs for UN Volunteers, and running reports from the Annual UN Volunteer Survey. In all of these initiatives Andrei's presence was highly appreciated.

In general, Andrei is the type of person that goes beyond what is asked of him, committing himself deeply to his work and always trying to push himself to achieve maximum results. It goes without saying that he has showed during his experience as an Online Volunteer an overall enthusiasm for working in international development as well as having a great sense of commitment to the mandate of the United Nations. I am therefore confident that he will make an excellent addition to your institution; bringing with him the skills he has thus far acquired to enhance and enrich his future colleagues and work product.

If his past achievements are any indicator of his future potential then I can think of no person more fitting or deserving of this opportunity.

Do not hesitate to contact me, if you wish to discuss these references further.

Sincerely,
